

Families
in Canada
Conference

Conférence
sur les familles
au Canada

FAMILIES IN CANADA CONFERENCE 2019

Registration is Now Open!

On March 27 and 28, 2019, the Vanier Institute of the Family will host the Families in Canada Conference 2019 – a national, pan-Canadian conference with simultaneous satellite events across the country.

These two days of research, knowledge-sharing, and engaging conversation will focus on the idea: THINK BIG: How can we use “Big Data” to inform and inspire big ideas to optimize family well-being in Canada?

The Halifax satellite event will feature local presentations and discussion in the mornings, with live-streamed keynote speakers from Ottawa in the afternoons. This interactive event will foster continued collaboration among delegates, and provide opportunities for dialogue around two key themes:

Day 1: SAFE, SOUND & HEALTHY: How data is benefitting families in Nova Scotia

Day 2: KNOWLEDGE TRANSLATION: Making data meaningful for families

WHERE: Room 307, Student Union Building, Dalhousie University

WHEN: March 27-28, 2019 9AM-4PM (registration desk opens at 8:15AM)

REGISTER TODAY! familiesincanada.ca or wisdom2action.org/vanier

(Select the satellite event location in the registration form)

Space is limited – don't miss this exciting opportunity!

About the Organizer:

The Vanier Institute of the Family is a national, independent, charitable organization dedicated to understanding the diversity and complexity of families and the reality of family life in Canada. The Institute offers access to a range of publications, research initiatives, presentations and social media content to enhance the national understanding of how families interact with, have an impact on and are affected by social, economic, environmental and cultural forces.

