About Kathryn

Kathryn is the Principal Consultant at LeBlanc (& co.) Communications. She has worked in communications in campaigns for all levels of government. As a campaigner and communications expert, Kathryn is able to deliver workshops, speeches, and trainings on a range of communications related to communications and nonprofits.

Her communications strategies have guided local and national nonprofits, grassroots organizing, and campaigns. As a former Parliament hill staffer, she has worked on communications, advocacy campaigns, and policy. Kathryn was a founding staff member of the Enchanté Network, where she served in several leadership roles.
